FOREWORD

This Book A Genealogy of the Boll Family is the information that I have been able to gather through the help of kind friends. Care was taken to gather reliable information. Errors will no doubt be found, which we trust will be excused. Hoping all honor will be given to the Lord.

Indeed it is true that Everything has its time, one Generation Passeth away and another Generation cometh.

We spend our years as a tale that is told. The days of our years are three score years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet it is through strength, labor and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away. Psa. 90-9 and 10

As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth. For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more. But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children; to such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them. Psa. 103-15-18

The Genealogy is now respectfully submitted to the public.

A Genealogy of the Boll Family

The first ancestor of this Family in America was Mathias Boll, son of Anton and Margaretha Jose Boll. He was born in 1804 in Hechingen, Germany near the border of Switzerland. This town is noted because of a Mansion built outside the town on a hill. This is known as "Burg Hohenzollern" or Keiser Wilhelm's Estate. From the top of this hill on a clear day a large part of Switzerland can be seen.

He came to America on a Sailing Boat, requiring three months to cross the ocean. This was probably early in the Eighteen Thirties. His wife the former Anna Marie Rie daughter of Joseph Rie was also born in Germany in the year of 1812. The date of her arrival to America is unknown. They met each other in Wilmington, Delaware. They were married and started housekeeping in Philadelphia. They probably lived in Philadelphia for several years, as records show that their first child Philip Anthony, was born on Popular Street in the city of Philadelphia. And by the time that their third child Joseph, was born they lived in Lititz, Pa. As he was born on what is now Broad and Front Street. (the present location of Zartmans Store). Later they moved about one and one half miles North of Lititz, near Lexington, Pa., where they spent most of their life.

In early life Mathias was a Cobbler, but later in life he made his living as a peddler. Folks who knew him say he was well adapted to this type of work, because of his extraordinary walking abilities. His son Joseph, recalled as a boy that he had accompanied his father on some of his trips, and it required running on his part to keep up with him.

I have been told that on one occasion he went to Philadelphia by foot to buy Merchandise for his peddling business. Leaving Lititz at 12 A.M. he started his long journey. As he was going towards Lancaster, he was passed by some farmers driving there teams loaded with produce for the Lancaster Market. As he approached Lancaster he passed these same teams, which had to stop every once in awhile due to the horses tiring.

He walked to Philadelphia, bought his merchandise, and returned home to Lititz the following day, after having carried his pack for a distance of about seventy miles.

In the latter part of his life, probably about 1877 he again left America for his native country, where he lived until his death. On January 21, 1883, at the age of 79, he died and was buried in a cemetery near the town of his birth, Hechingen, Germany.

His wife Anna Marie, died July 15, 1865, at the early age of 53. She was buried in a small cemetery near Lexington, Pa, where her tombstone can still be seen. The cemetery is located on a Farm now owned by Phares Zartman, near Lexington.
